

Elders, Deacons Are Selected

ARDMORE, Jan. 11—(Special)—The First Presbyterian church elected the following men to serve as elders during the coming three-year term: J. I. Goin, Floyd Noble, Roy Troutt, James Thompson and C. A. Wilson.

Elected as deacons during the coming term were Carl Davenport, Dr. W. J. Johnston, Chauncey Schaller, Frank Millard, Lee Roy Riley, O. G. Frakes, Don Rorick, Frank Hornett, E. C. McAninch, V. M. Spratt, N. B. Venus and Arthur Kyle.

-- Daily Oklahoman --
Thursday, January 12, 1950

Presbyterians Name Officers at Ardmore

ARDMORE, Jan. 17—New officers elected by the First Presbyterian church at its 64th annual congregational meeting this week were elders Kenneth Wells, Gene Durie, Fred Miller, James L. Dolman and Carl Davenport; deacons, Bert Powers, Val Bartrug, David Ryker, Harold Weichbrodt, Norman Yordi, Kenneth Knouse, Louie Bastin, Jack Jewell and Pete Landrum.

New trustees are James E. Thompson, Roy Troutt and Ralph Wall. The church adopted an operating budget of $37,443 for 1953.

Daily Oklahoman
Sunday, January 18, 1953

Ardmore Youths Receive Awards

ARDMORE, May 19—David Hoin and Mary Lou Means won the Daughters of American Revolution history awards at the annual honors day assembly this week in Ardmore highschool. The prized Arno Art club Johnny Dixon cash scholarship for $100 went to Ruth Ann Steele.

Gilbert debate awards were won by Gene Cunningham and Jim Bruce, and letters in debate were won by Hays Smith, Stanley Beard, Jimmy Lewis, Jim Bruce and Gene Cunningham.

Dean Richardson won first in the short story division with his "Man Alone," and Melinda McClanahan, second. Joyce Fisher took first in the essay contest with "The Old Barn," and Mae Davenport won first in the poetry division.

Daily Oklahoman
Sunday, May 20, 1956