

Friday, August 30, 1912

Buckhead

The women are drying peaches and the men eating watermelon now.

Mrs. Raff Morrison who has been sick for two weeks is improving rapidly.

Mrs. Claudia Tate is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Drago of Wanette.

Mr. and Mrs. Milsap are the proud parents of a new baby girl.

Mrs. Pearl Smith and Miss Bulah Mallow made a business trip to Rosedale Tuesday.

Clay Baling is suffering a great deal from a thumb that he got hurt in a ball game at Rose Hill.

Quite a number from this neighborhood have been attending the meeting which Rev. Moorhead is conducting at Rosedale.

A protracted meeting is in full swing at Box.

Joe Ray and wife have a fine baby boy at their home.

Mrs. Will Upchurch spent Sunday with her daughters, Mrs. Pearl Smith and May Morrison.

Joe Storin and wife and Ed Burlison were in Wanette Saturday on business.

Porter Skinner got his foot mashed in a hay baler this week and is suffering great pain.

Mrs. George Skinner visited Mrs. Millsap Sunday evening.

The singing convention at Mt. Zion was a failure. Only a few singers came so the convention was not held.

Charley Mallow and Ed Baxter visited at Ira Mallow's Sunday.

Mrs. Mertie Ball of Wanette and two of her friends passed through Buckhead Sunday on the way to her mother's. Mrs. J. J. Brown of Corbett.

The new gin at Buckhead is complete and can turn out as good work as any.

Let your Uncle Sap know the news for the paper.

Miss Jessie Odem spent Thursday night with Miss Ella Anneler.

Buckhead

Mrs. C. W. Upchurch died Sunday at the home of her son, W. A. Upchurch, after an illness of several days.

Eugene Mallow made a business trip to Wanette Saturday.

C. M. Mantooth made a trip to Byars Saturday.

Box Lodge No. 201 I. O. O. F. will hold memorial services at their lodge hall at Box on Tuesday night June 11. Everybody is invited.

Dan C. Crider, the socialist lecturer from Texas, will speak at Red Springs school house on Thursday night, June 13. He also gives a free musical entertainment in connection with his lecture. Everybody is invited to come.

Don't U C.

Friday, May 7, 1915

Mt. Zion Items

Rev. Moorhead of Mangum, Oklahoma, will preach here Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night, May 8 and 9.

Miss Vesta Upchurch took dinner with Miss Niece Menasco Sunday.

Rev. Myers and family were dinner guests of Luther Hopper and family Sunday.

Will Hill and wife were Wanette visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Maggie Mallow visited Mrs. Curry Thursday evening.

Sunday school attendance Sunday was 84, with good preaching services afterward by Rev. Myers.

Florence Bowlen was the guest of Vergie Barber Sunday.

Mr. Harris transacted business in Lexington Wednesday.

Mr. Upchurch died Thursday April 29 and was laid to rest in the Mount Zion cemetery Friday. He leaves eight children and three step children a sister and brothers to mourn his loss. The warmest sympathies of all go out to the rela-

Friday, April 16, 1915

Mt. Zion Items

Are'nt you glad it's spring?

Walter Wooten transacted business in Wanette Monday.

Miss Rhoda Bowlen visited at the Grogan home Sunday.

Will Clark was a Wanette visitor Monday.

Ira Mallow visited Clint Potter Saturday.

Mrs. Jane Elliott from Texas is visiting her father, Mr. Upchurch, who is very sick.

Rufus Upchurch was in Wanette Saturday.

H. H. Tate and family visited R. L. Tate and family of Trousdale Saturday.

Mrs. Austin of Sparks, Okla. is visiting her son, Bentley Austin, and family this week.

Florence Bowlen was a Sunday dinner guest at the Menasco home.

Jala and Ethelene Grogan returned to school Monday after spending the week end with home folks.

Mrs. Chambliss visited Mrs. Wooten Monday.

Mrs. Coasey was a pleasant caller at the Hopper home Monday.

Clay Bowlen and family and sisters, Rhoda and Ethel, shopped in Wanette Monday.

Mrs. Mollie Bowers visited her daughter, Mrs. Clara Burlison Thursday.

Bob Hopper visited his mother, Tuesday.