ESCONDIDO -

Marjorie Louise Warren

Marjorie Louise Warren, 79, died Sunday, Dec. 18, 2005.

Born July 24, 1926, in Escondido, she lived there all her life. She was a teacher for the Escondido Union School District at Felicita and Miller elementary schools for more than 30 years. She attended Central Elementary School and graduated from Escondido High School in 1944., The class of the Party-Goers. She received a bachelor's degree and teaching credential from San Diego State University. She was a member of the California Retired Teacher's Association, the Emblem Club and the First United Methodist Church of Escondido. She enjoyed baseball, especially the Padres.

One son and three grandchildren have followed her in the field of teaching. The most important thing to Marge was her family, especially her grandchildren.

Mrs. Warren was preceded in death by her parents, Mattie and Rupert Baldrige; brother Bud Baldrige; and daughter-in-law Nancie Warren. She is survived by her husband of 59 years, James Robert "Bob" Warren Sr. of Escondido; sons and daughters-in-law James Robert "Bob" Jr. and Janet Warren, and Arthur K. and Laura Warren; grandchildren Traci, Corby, Jennifer, Brook, Britton, Blake and Whitney; and seven great-grandchildren.

A memorial service is scheduled for 10 a.m. Tuesday, Jan. 2, 2006, at the First United Methodist Church in Escondido. Private interment at Oak Hill Cemetery in Escondido is planned. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to the Marjorie Warren Memorial Scholarship Fund for an award to a San Pasqual High School graduate who intends to pursue the teaching profession. Donations can be mailed to San Pasqual High School, c/o Art Warren, 3300 Bear Valley Parkway, Escondido, CA 92025.
